

were received out of which 300 papers including contributions from countries like the USA and South Africa were published in the online journals of AR publications on their website www.conferenceworld.com

FDP on Tax Planning and Monetizing Money in Stock Markets

A Faculty Development Programme on Tax Planning and Monetizing Money in Stock Markets was successfully organized at DAV Institute of Management, Faridabad in association with Profit Idea, Gurgaon on 12th May, 2015 at the Conference Hall "Yojna" of the Institute.

Mr. Varun Aggarwal, Managing Director and CEO, Profit Idea, Gurgaon, shared the various aspects and avenues relating to Tax Planning, investment in Stock Markets, Fixed Income Schemes, Risk Management, Portfolio Development, Short Term and Long Term Investments.

The programme was conducted in a workshop mode and the speaker Mr. Varun Aggarwal shared the details on the said avenues and also demonstrated the concept with the help of case studies.

Career in Retail Industry-Business of Capturing Customer's Heart

CMA Satish Sharma, CFO, Aadhar Wholesale Trading & Distribution (Future Group of Companies) shared his views on the Retail Industry. He said that retail industry requires talents from various streams like Supply Chain Management, Financial Management, Marketing, E-retailing, Business Communication, Customer Relationship etc. A career in Retail Sector can be developed as Store Manager, Retail Manager, Retail Designer etc. Numerous jobs are available in music and book stores, publishing industry, multiplexes etc. at the management level.

CMA Satish Sharma concluded the session by emphasizing the rapid growth of the retail sector and its deep penetration in various parts of the country within a very short span of time which is now being termed as the Retail Revolution. He also observed that the MBA students have a great scope in this sector.

Make in India by Green Ways and Means

The DAV Institute of Management in association with the Faridabad Management Association (An Associate of All India Management Association) celebrated the National Management Day at the Institute's Auditorium on 18th February, 2015. The event was themed as "Make in India by Green Ways and Means" keeping in mind the Prime Minister's and the Government of India's initiative which focuses on self-employment, entrepreneurship development and green energy that has been designed to transform India into a global manufacturing hub.

The Institute hosted an elite panel of eminent speakers from the industry and the corporate world including Dr. J.S. Juneja - Chairman, Global Project & Services & Chairman, AIMA MSME Committee, Mr. Subash Jagota - Sr. Vice President FMA & CEO- Global Business Solutions, Mr. Jitendu Roy, CEO, Innobate Technology, Mr. Arun Bhardwaj, CEO, Avteq India Pvt. Ltd., Mr. Narinder Kaul, Director, Potential Enhancement and Mr. Kinshuk Chouksey, Redeem Renewable Energy Pvt. Ltd.

The Programme began with the Management Day presentation by Mr. V. Thyagarajan, Secretary, FMA, followed by the theme address that was delivered by Mr. Subhash Jagota. Further Dr. Neelam Gulati welcomed the panel of speakers and shared her views on the theme.

During the event, the eminent panel of speakers shared their perspective on various aspects and dimensions of the Make in India Campaign and what challenges and opportunities pertaining to the initiative lie ahead for the nation. The participants included members from the corporate and education fraternity along with the students of the Post-graduate Programmes.